

MEET THE NEED: SOUTH CAROLINA'S STATEWIDE TRAINING ON ADOPTION

Meet the Need 2024: South Carolina's Statewide Training on Adoption offers two days of trauma-focused attachment-based training. Keynote speakers include Melissa Corkum, author of Reclaim Compassion, adoptee, and adoptive parent; Kayla Moffitt, foster care advocate, adoptive mother, and Foster the Family staff member; and Allison Cooke Douglas, post-permanency expert at the National Center for Enhanced Post-Adoption Support, Neurosequential Model in Education trainer, and adoptive parent.

Join us for a two day training diving deeper into the three TBRI® Principles: Connecting, Empowering and Correcting, to bring hope and healing to your home.

DECEMBER 5-6

MARRIOTT DOWNTOWN COLUMBIA, SC
1200 Hampton Street

REGISTER HERE

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS, HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS, AND MORE ON OUR WEBSITE!

Earn up to 10 total training hours for both days!

Flourishing Families of SC is an approved provider for continuing education by the SC Professional Counselors, Marriage & Family Therapists and Psycho-Educational Specialists licensing board. Up to 6 counseling CE hours.*

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

MELISSA CORKUM

Connecting Keynote: Defining Success and the Foundation of Fun
As an adoptee and adoptive mom, Melissa Corkum provides insight and resources to adoptees, parents and professionals through her speaking, coaching, and writing. She is a TED Speaker, Safe and Sound Protocol Practitioner, Cultivate Connection Facilitator, Certified Enneagram Coach, and co-founder of Adoption Wise. Additionally, she co-authored Reclaim Compassion.

KAYLA MOFFITT

Empowering Keynote: It Takes More Than Love

Kayla Moffitt is a teacher, writer, speaker, TBRI® Practitioner, foster care advocate, adoptive mama to five siblings, and the Communications Coordinator for Foster the Family.

ALLISON COOKE DOUGLAS

Correcting Keynote: Building Resilience: Helping Kids Thrive, Not Just Survive

Allison Cooke Douglas, M.S., IECMH-E®, is the Resource Center Program Manager at Harmony Family in Knoxville, TN and serves as a post-permanency expert at the National Center for Enhanced Post-Adoption Support. Over the past decade, Allison's work has focused on post-permanency family support.